"Take a very close look at the following quote from Plato. It holds the key to why those in power have no problem lying to you and sleeping like a baby. I suggest you read it closely several times.

They say that to do injustice is, by nature, good; to suffer injustice, evil; but that the evil is greater than the good. And so when men have both done and suffered injustice and have had experience of both, not being able to avoid the one and obtain the other, they think that they had better agree among themselves to have neither;

hence there arise laws and mutual covenants; and that which is ordained by law is termed by them lawful and just

. This they affirm to be the origin and nature of justice; —

it is a mean or compromise

, between the best of all, which is to do injustice and not be punished

, and the worst of all, which is to suffer injustice without the power of retaliation; and justice, being at a middle point between the two,

is tolerated not as a good,

but as the lesser evil, and honoured by reason of the inability of men to do injustice.

For no man who is worthy to be called a man would ever submit to such an agreement if he were able to resist; he would be mad if he did.

Such is the received account, Socrates, of the nature and origin of justice — Plato's Republic, Book II.

Do you see this? Do you understand it? Do you comprehend what this means? You might want to read it again. Any and all conduct is justified to get what you want under POLITICAL theory. That is the BASIS of real political theory." (<http://www.thetruthaboutthelaw.com/they-constantly-lie-to-you-learn-why/>)

A state based on Plato's Republic, Book II, has been created based on the principle that fraud is good if one can avoid punishment. Such a state is, therefore, for its very survival dependent on criminal thinking, which explain High Level Corruption.

For such a state, built on Plato's Academic Tradition or Cult, people with a highly developed moral is a threat, unless these dangerous non criminal minds can be successfully fooled.

But it is not necessary to base a state on Platonism.
It is not necessary to base a state on criminal thinking.
It is not necessary to base a state on High Level Corruption.
